The State Fair opened auspiciously at Lexington with a larger attendance than was expected for the first day.

Paul Morton says the Equitable Life Assurance Society will hereafter refuse to contribute to political campaign funds.

Bath county's tobacco crop has been housed, and is estimated at 2,000,000 pounds, about 1,000,000 less than last year.

Lexington day at the State Fair at Lexington attracted a crowd of 12,000 people to the grounds, more than two thousand of whom were from Louisville.

The frigate Constitution, termed the first ship in the American navy, is on the point of "turning turtle" at the Charleston navy yard, and re-been stopped in Bath county, the illegal sale of it will now begin—Mayville Leader.

Yes, the express company has offices almost everywhere.

In the light of recent developments regarding contributions to Republican campaigns funds, Attorney Parke would be more than willing if he refrains from saying "I told you so."

The New York Life Insurance Company contributed $45,000 last year to the Republican campaign fund.
Why that said $27, was the contribution in two-dollar bills, so that among Indiana voters?

United States Surgeon White offers the assurance that President Roosevelt can make his contemplated trip to New Orleans at the point pointed out in all safety.

CHAPMAN CAMP.

The lock work at this place is getting along nicely. They will soon be ready to go to concreting. This work gives employment to a number of laborers.

The latest addition to our town is a new market.
Bro. Grizzle was calling on all of us people Saturday afternoon. He preached his last sermon here Sunday. Before going to Conference all the people seem to like him and would be pleased to have him come back.

We had a box supper Friday evening. The proceeds were good. All had a pleasant time.

Joe McClure went to Louisa Tuesday.

John Rice and wife spent Sunday in Louisa.

Mr. Lakeman visited his family Sunday in Ashland.

Mrs. John Stump, accompanied by her mother and little daughter visited at Boons Camp, Saturday and Sunday.

Uncle Thomas Salter is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Compton, this week.

Mrs. Cland Boten and little son, Clifford, spent a few days in Catlettsburg this week.

Mrs. Rittenbury was shopping in Louisa Monday.

W. T. Austin was a business visitor here Tuesday.

Our school is flourishing under the management of Kirtle See.

De Wray makes two trips here weekly.

We have had some sickness, but all are improving.

Wishing the NEWS all the success possible I remain,      Levin.

CAN YOU EAT?

J. R. Taylor, a prominent merchant of Christiansburg, Tex., says: "I could not eat because of a weak stomach.
I lost all strength and ran down in weight. All that money could do was done, but all hope of recovery was lost. Hearing of the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, I concluded to try it.
The first bottle benefited me, and after taking four bottles, I am fully restored to my usual strength, weight and health." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, digest what you eat and enjoy it. Sold by Louisa Drug Co.

NO UNPLEASANT EFFECTS.

If you ever took DeWitt's Little Early Risers for biliousness or constipation you know what pill pleasure is. These famous little pills cleanse the liver and rid the system of all bile without producing unpleasant effects. Sold by Louisa Drug Co.

PATRICK.

Last week Forrest Preston, son of Edith Preston, was killed at Thurmond, W. Va., supposed by a runaway motor-car. Was sent here by express, the interment taking place Saturday.
Particulars of his death are unknown at the time of this writing. His body was badly mangled.

Sunday was the regular communion meeting at Preston Gap, was largely attended. Elders T. Justice, of Job, Ky., and John Murray, of Henderson, were present.

Elder Rose Murray preached in his pulpit at last Saturday night and Sunday, returning Sunday evening. Reports a good time.

Master Boyd, who is here attending school, visited home folks Sunday at Henderson.

Mrs. Grace Rater, daughter of Rev.
Rater, has gone to Paintsville. Grace is laboring under ill health and thinks the change will do her good.

Julia Gault was calling on Mrs.
Mallo Murray Friday.

Uncle Hugh Boyd and wife attended church at the "Gap" Sunday.

Several attended also from Richmond.

Kentucky Kernels.

Owenton is going to have water works.
Only two vacant houses in Owingsville.

The present season of Liberty College promises to be the best ever held, as it is by far the largest enrollment on record.

The City Council of Cincinnati passed an ordinance prohibiting the keeping and feeding of hogs in the city limits at any time during the year.

The Legislative Committee on Revenue and Taxation will meet at Owenton September 26 and 27. Twenty members of the next Legislature will be present.

Since poultry raising has gotten to be such a paying business there is great complaint in the hills of the foxes killing a great many chickens and other fowls.

Richmond Commandery, Knights Templar, has organized a mounted squadron of its membership for the purpose of making an impressive display at future conclaves of the order.

Early frosts and an early winter are predicted on all hands, and the thick corn stalks and various other signs are already being pointed to as favoring a severe cold season.

A. W. Bascom, of Bath county, has a fine lemon tree. He keeps the tree in a greenhouse or flower pit in the winter. He says that it takes about sixteen months for a lemon to mature after blossoming.
